REVOLT AGAINST CASTRO LIKELY

Other Aspirants for Presidency Waiting for the French Blockade.

President Castro is Said to Be Boasting That He Will Test the Monroe Doctrine—People Ready to Fight Against President.

Willemstad.—Conditions in Venezuela were unchanged at the date of the latest advices from that country. The censorship is rigid. One report is that the attitude of Vice President Vicente Gomez, who is said to be plotting a revolution against President Castro, in case of a French blockade, is causing some anxiety.

It is reported also that General Antonio Velutini, second vice president, has a secret understanding with France, and that he aspires to the presidency. All the turmoil over the French cable company's concessions is attributed to General Velutini, and it is expected he will soon abandon President Castro.

President Castro is said to be boasting that he will test the Monroe doctrine.

The reports say that the best information in Venezuela shows that France or any other power can rely upon almost the entire population to fight President Castro, and that anxiety is everywhere expressed for the arrival of the French to solve the problem which is beyond the resources of the Venezuelans.

Money will be decidedly scarcer if a war should break out, and the Venezuelan government has made no preparation whatever for the commissariat. President Castro continues his campaign against foreigners and has expelled a man named Van Kestern.

RANCHMAN SHOT DOWN.

Thomas O'Neill Attacked by Hired Assassin in Wyoming.

Cheyenne, Wyo.—Tom O'Neill, the Chuk Bluffs ranchman, was shot by an unknown assassin at his ranch, twelve miles south of Cheyenne Saturday afternoon, but will recover. The bullet, a .30-36, passed through the fleshy part of the left leg between the knee and hip and lodged in the right leg about five inches above the knee. Cheyenne surgeons were called to the ranch by telephone and dressed the wounds.

The shot was fired by a hired killer, who adopted the tactics followed so successfully for many years by Willie Nickell, Matt Hatcher, John Dart, William Powell, William Lewis and others. The assassin fired from a distance of at least a mile, not daring, evidently, to come closer to O'Neill, for the bullet had almost spent itself by the time it reached its victim. The circumstances show also that the assassin aimed at O'Neill's body, the trajectory of the bullet almost saving his life.

PREACHER HAD LOOTED HIS OWN STRONG BOX

Officers of Illinois Minister Who Succeeded Contained Nothing of Value to His Creditors.

Peoria, Ill.—The widow of the late Dr. Simmons opened the private safety deposit box of the suicide preacher on Saturday and found that the box, which was expected to contain valuable papers, was empty, with the exception of an unimportant business letter. A certificate of sale for $30,000 worth of Macon Cereal stock now on deposit, an asset of the People's bank, which was thought to be in the box, was not found.

It is now feared that the sale which Dr. Simmons told his friends had been made, was not bona fide.

No will has been found and policies for heavy insurance thought to be carried are missing.

The failure to verify the sale of Macon stock has greatly depreciated the assets of the People's bank, now in bankruptcy.

French Bark Claimed to Have Been Short of Ballast.

This is the first time for a number of years that any crew has seen fit to take matters in their hands and forcibly leave a ship. Sailors state that 250 tons of ballast for a ship the size of the Courbet is not sufficient. They also state that it was only by good luck that she was picked up after she broke adrift from the tug on her way up here from San Francisco.

The loss of the Pass of Melfort is attributed to the lack of sufficient ballast.

Woman's Trials.

The bitter trail in a woman's life is to be childless. What tell how hard the struggle may have been, ere she learnt to resign herself to her lonely lot? The absence of this link to bid marital life together, the absence of this one pledge to mutual affection is a common disappointment. Many unfortunate couples become estranged thereby. Even if they do not drift apart, one may read the whole extent of their disappointment in the eyes of such a childless couple when they rest on the bosom of others. To them the largest families do not seem too numerous.

In many cases of barrenness or childlessness the obstacle to child-bearing is easily removed by the cure of weakness on the part of the woman. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been the means of restoring health and fruitfulness to many a barren woman, to the great joy of the household. In other, but rare cases, the obstruction to the bearing of children has been found to be of a surgical character, but easily removable by the latest operative treatment at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., over which Dr. Pierce of the Favorite Prescription fame presides. In all cases where children are desired and are absent, an effort should be made to find out the real cause, since it is generally so easily removed by proper treatment.

In all the various weaknesses, displacements, prolapses, inflammation and diseases of the female system, and in all cases of nervousness and debility, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the most effective remedy. It is a purely vegetable preparation, and its use is safe. It has its credit hundreds of thousands of cures—more in fact than any other remedy put up for sale through druggists, especially for the cure of the various ailments of which the "Favorite Prescription" is composed have received the most positive endorsement from the leading medical writers on Hygiene, Medicine and the several schools of practice. All the ingredients are printed in plain English on the wrapper enclosing the bottle, so that any woman making use of this famous medicine may know exactly what she is taking. Dr. Pierce takes his patients into his confidence, and he can afford to do so as the formula after which the "Favorite Prescription" is made will bear the most careful examination.

MARRIAGE EASY IN SCOTLAND.

Simple Declaration Suffices to Make Couple Man and Wife.

To be married by Scotch laws one must have resided for a fortnight in the country. After that it is quite sufficient for two people to say before witnesses that they take each other as man and wife to marry them as legally and as firmly as if the archbishop of Canterbury himself had performed the ceremony. It is not alone when the declaration is solemn and intentional that the marriage is binding. Such a declaration made in jest is enough to hold as firmly as if it were in earnest. Many young people have thus slipped into matrimony unwittingly.

Even for a man to address a woman as his wife, either by writing or by speech, and for her to respond in the same terms, constitutes a marriage in Scotland. Anyone who has ever read "Wilkie Collins' novel, "Man and Wife," will remember there a case in point. The heroine sends a note to her lover, signing herself "Your Wife"; he is sufficiently careless and indifferent to write his reply on the back of her own letter, and sign himself "Your Husband." This note, crumpled up and tossed aside as of no value, falls into the hands of an unscrupulous person, who, to levy blackmail, on the hero, keeps it, and produces it as evidence of marriage. No other form had been gone through and yet the couple were married legally.

A BOY'S BREAKFAST

There's a Natural Food That Makes Its Own Way.

There's a boy up in Hoosick Falls, N. Y., who is growing into sturdy manhood on Grape-Nuts breakfasts. It might have been different with him, as his mother explains:

"My 11-year-old boy is large, well developed and active, and has been made so by his fondness for Grape-Nuts food. At five years he was a very nervous child and was subject to frequent attacks of indigestion which used to rob him of his strength and were very troublesome to deal with. He never seemed to care for anything for his breakfast until I tried Grape-Nuts, and I have never had to change from that. He makes his entire breakfast of Grape-Nuts food. It is always relished by him and he says that it satisfies him better than the ordinary kind of a meal."

The foreign residents in China strongly oppose the withdrawal of the troops.

VENEZUELA IS GETTING READY

Troops are Being Enlisted by Castro to Engage in War With France.

Castro is Unpopular With His Countrymen, However, and Many Will Desert as Soon as French Blockade is Declared.

Willemstad, Island of Curacao.—A traveler who arrived here from Venezuela said:

"President Castro is busily engaged in enlisting throughout the republic and in other ways preparing for war. Generals in each state have been commissioned and orders have been given to call the recruits to the colors."

"Information from the best sources indicates that the people do not support President Castro. On all sides are heard expressions of a desire to revolt and overthrow the president's government as soon as the French blockade is declared."

"A well-informed Venezuelan told me that the troops will desert their colors, as they have all been compelled to join the army, voluntary enlistments being unknown in Venezuela. Puerto Cabello and Lagunaira are the only ports capable of making a slight defense. The former has two modern six-inch guns and the latter has four modern six-inch guns, with the usual display of old Spanish pieces which would be blown to pieces at the first shots."

"It is doubted whether President Castro can raise more than 16,000 men who will take the field with any show of spirit. The men are armed with Mauser rifles, but they never practice shooting. They have twenty million rounds of ball cartridges and a few mountain guns. The Venezuelan navy consists of five small craft concentrated at Lagunaira."

BLACK HUNDREDS AT WORK.

Throw Bombs Into Crowd, Causing Fearful Run.

St. Petersburg.—The war between the fighting organization of the revolutionists and the so-called black hundreds assumed a new phase Friday night, when a band of reds surrounded the Cabaret Schuesseleberg Chaussee, on the bank of the Nevsky river, and threw a bomb among an assemblage of workmen. The reds then opened fire on the panic-stricken inmates of the cabaret, killing two and seriously wounding eighteen, of which latter one died while being taken to the hospital.

The bomb, which was hurled through a window into the main room of the restaurant, demolished almost the entire building. A wooden partition was blown out and much furniture, glassware and crockery was shattered. The ruins were splattered with liquor and blood and pieces of flesh, the whole presenting a sickening sight.

COLORADO IS GROWING.

Value of State's Manufactures in 1904 Was $100,446,999.

Washington.—Twenty-two per cent increase in the number of manufacturing establishments and 13 per cent increase in the value of the products for the year 1904, as against 1900, is the showing of Colorado, according to a preliminary summary of the statistics of manufacturing industries for that state.

Excluding the neighborhood industries and hand trades, such as the building trades, dressmaking, custom millinery, cobbling, etc., there were 1607 establishments in 1904, representing a capital of $197,743,590. The number of salaried officials, clerks, etc., employed was 2,880, drawing salaries amounting to $3,553,843. There were 12,824 wage-earners, and they were paid $15,109,309. The value of the products is given as $100,446,999.

Batch of Pension Bills.

Washington.—The house on Friday ground out its usual semi-monthly grist of private pensions, passing in 72 minutes 429 bills for the benefit of veterans who are barred for one reason or another from coming in under the general statute. Seventy-five per cent of the beneficiaries are either blind or bedridden. This order, with a number of minor bills and the passage of two amendments to Philippine tariff act of 1905, constituted the transactions of the day.

EGGS ALL CONTAIN A POISON

Action of Gastric Juices and Bile Prevents Bad Effects.

Paragraphs have been extensively published in the daily papers dealing with the researches of M. Lolsel of Paris on the recurrence of poisonous principles in eggs. It seems that the yolk of the eggs of hens, ducks and turkeys contain a poison which, if injected into the veins or otherwise inoculated into the animal body, causes death from its effects on the nervous system. The white of the tortoise's egg also contains a toxic substance.

Why eggs are not poisonous as ordinarily used or even when eaten raw may be explained on the ground that the action of digestion alters the composition of the egg or at least modifies it so that ill effects are avoided. Indeed, it is easy to show that certain foods at a particular stage of digestion are "poisons." It is the action of the liver on such foods which robs them of their power to do harm.

Comanche Counts Querly.

A peculiar feature about the Comanche language is the method of counting. A Comanche will count up to ten in the 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 method, but there he stops. He doesn't use eleven, but instead he counts it as "ten and one more," and so on, until he reaches nineteen. He then pronounces twenty, but starts in with "twenty and one more" until he reaches twenty-nine, which he counts twenty-nine, then starts in with thirty, like he did twenty, and counts to thirty-nine, and so on all the way up. Counting is the most difficult thing to learn in the Comanche language. In fact, by the time a person has learned to count in that language he has pretty well mastered it. As there is no alphabet in the language the only way to learn it is by word of mouth.

"When I was a boy," said an old gentleman, "I attended the old Grahm Academy in Maine. One of the Rev. Caleb Bradley of Scarborough, Mass., came to talk to us. It was during the presidency of Mr. Polk, and his remarks showed how much higher political feeling ran in those days than now. He said, 'If you make good boys you will make good men. Some of you might make a Washington, some of you a Jefferson, and the Lord knows most any of you might make a Polk.'"

ANÆMIA CAN BE CURED

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Make New Blood and Strike Straight at the Root of Disease.

Anæmia is just the doctor's name for bloodlessness. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new blood. They cure anæmia just as food cures hunger. They cure Mrs. Thos. J. McGann, of 17 Lincoln Place, Plainfield, N. J., and they can do as much for any other pale, weak, anæmic person.

"In the spring of 1903 I did my usual house cleaning," says Mrs. McGann, "and soon afterward I began to have the most terrible headaches. My heart would beat so irregularly that it was painful and there came a morning when I could not get up. My doctor said I had anæmia and he was surprised that I had continued to live in the condition I was in. I was confined to my bed for nearly two months, the doctor coming every day for the first few weeks, but I did not improve to amount to anything."

"Altogether I was sick for nearly two years. I was as weak as a rag, had headaches, irregular heart beats, loss of appetite, cramps in the limbs and was unable to get a good night's sleep. My legs and feet were so swollen that I feared they would burst."

"One day, while I was wondering how long I could live, feeling as I did, I received a letter telling about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I read it and told my husband to get me some of the pills. Before the first box was gone I felt a change for the better. I have taken about twelve boxes and although I was as near the grave as I could be, I now feel as if I had a new lease of life. I have no more headaches, the heart beats regularly, my cheeks are pink and I feel ten years younger. I feel that I have been cured very cheaply and I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to lots of my friends."
